

Press Release

Donald Kerper tapped for International Association of Facilitator's Global Board

Stratford, WI, February 2, 2017

Donald Kerper was elected to the global board of the International Association of Facilitators (IAF) for 2017 and 2018 representing the interests of its US members. The IAF has members from 65 different countries around the world. The IAF is a professional association that sets internationally accepted facilitation standards; provides facilitation accreditation; supports a community of facilitation practice; advocates / educates on the power of facilitation; and embraces the diversity of facilitators.

Kerper is the principal and senior consultant of Misty River Consulting, a small boutique consultancy that provides Industrial/Organizational Psychology services based out of Stratford, WI. With clients across the United States, Kerper is a two time winner of the Facilitation Impact Award, the most prestigious international award honoring excellence in facilitation and its positive, measurable impact on businesses, governments and non-profit organizations around the world.

Misty River Consulting exceptional value for its clients through its products and services that include:

-) Award Winning Facilitation Services including Strategic Planning, Process Improvement (Lean and Six Sigma), Project Management, etc.
-) Business Performance Improvement Programs including startups or businesses in crisis.
-) Organizational Change Management Services including diagnosis and development.
-) Leadership and Management Effectiveness Development.
-) Employee Engagement Initiatives
-) Engaging and Entertaining Professional Speaking Events.

Misty River Consulting

Donald A. Kerper
EP938 Hillside Street
Stratford, WI 54484
Cell: (715) 316-3636
Office Phone: (715) 687-8818
Fax: (206) 339-3495
Email: dkerper@mistryriver.net
Web: www.mistryriver.net

For Release 2/1/2017